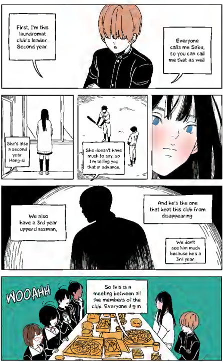
WELCOME TO LAUNDROMAT

#1



First, I'm this laundromat club's leader. Second year
Everyone calls me Sabu, so you can call me that as well
She's also a second year Hong-si
She doesn't have much to say, so I'm telling you that in advance.
We also have a 3rd year upperclassman,
And he's the one that kept this club from disappearing
We don't see him much because he's a 3rd year.
WOOAHH
So this is a meeting between all the members of the club. Everyone dig in

T/N Sabu can also mean Master

Ah, my mistake. Sorry
Squirt
Kya
Wipe it with tissues
Wrong
SHF
Let's wipe it with this mop
Let's just cut that bit out
Wrong
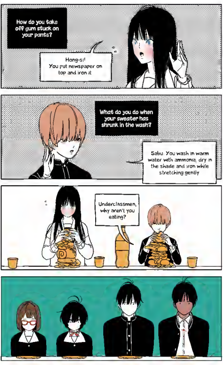
Wrong
Hong-si!
You need to wipe with a wet tissue and vinegar, and then put it in the wash
Correct. We, in the laundromat club, only eat if you get the question correct

#3



How do you take off gum stuck on your pants?
Hong-si! You put newspaper on top and iron it
What do you do when your sweater has shrunk in the wash?
Sabu. You wash in warm water with ammonia, dry in the shade and iron while stretching gently
Underclassmen, why aren't you eating?
